Once upon a time, there was an old man. His name was Mr. John. He had a big house but he was staying only with his wife. They had one dog whose name was Becky. He was two years old. Becky was a tall and strong dog. Whenever they were going out, they used to leave him loose in the compound. On seeing him loose, nobody dared to come near the house.

One day Mr and Mrs John went out but unfortunately they forgot to leave Becky loose. As one of the passing men did not see Mr. John's car and the dog, he went in slowly. He broke open one of the window-panes and started pulling things from the room. On hearing this noise, Becky started barking and jumping up and down. As he was a strong dog he managed to break the chain. On seeing the dog coming, the man started running without taking anything.

But Becky chased him and jumped over him. At this time a two policemen were passing near-by, they rushed there and arrested the person. Becky went back to his house, and waited for his masters.

Read the following passage carefully and then answer questions 41 to 50.

A school is an institution where pupils go to learn. In school, there are teachers, pupils and workers. Teachers teach the pupils subjects like Maths, English, Kiswahili, Science and Social studies. They also advise pupils on how to behave in school. Teachers also encourage pupils to work hard so that they can be successful in life. After the teacher has taught, he gives questions or exercises to be answered by the pupils.

He then collects the books for marking. The pupils become happy after the teachers have marked their work and they have got everything. This motivates pupils to work even harder. Workers at school cook for pupils, others sweep their classes and even cleaning the compound.

In a school, there are also classes where pupils learn from. In those classes there are desks, chairs, tables and cupboards. Pupils sit on the chairs. They keep their books in the lockers. Pupils should not misbehave during the lessons. They should obey their teachers and also the prefects. Teachers should encourage pupils to use polite words like sorry, excuse me, may I and others. This shows that one is respectful and courteous.

Parents on the other hand play a big role. They ensure that their children come to school prepared to learn. They pay the school fees, buy books and stationeries. All this shows that they love their children. It is now the work of the pupils to work hard and succeed in life.
