Wanafunzi ambao hupoteza wakati wao ovyo wanastahili kupewa nasaha. Nilipokuwa nikisoma katika shule ya Bidii alikuwepo rafiki yangu aliyekuwa akiitwa Katundu. Alikuwa akisoma pamoja na wenzetu wa hirimu moja. Katundu alipenda sana kwenda shuleni lakini hakupenda masomo. Alipokuwa shuleni kazi yake kubwa ilikuwa kusinzia wakati mwalimu alipokuwa akifunza. Vilevile alikuwa akimwanganilia mwalimu saa ili apate fursa ya kutoka nje kucheza. Kucheza si vibaya lakini lazima mwanafunzi ajue ni nini kilichompeleka shuleni. Kando na kucheza alipenda sana kutazama sinema usiku au kwenda pwani kuogelea kwa kuwa ufuo wa bahari na nyumbani kwao kulikuwa sawa na pua na mdomo.

Katundu angepewa ziada alikuwa akifanya kiasi tu na kazi hiyo nyingine angeangalia kwa wenzake. Usisahau kuwa Katundu hakuwa mjinga ni vile tu hakutilia maanani masomo. Walimu walijaribu kumwita na kumwambia apunguze mchezo na akome kupoteza muda wake bure. Hata hivyo hayo yote yalikuwa sawa na kumpigia mbuzi gambusi acheze. Kwake Katundu, hakuona thamani ya masomo hata kidogo.

Baada ya baba yake kuona vile ambavyo mwanawe alikuwa akidorora masomoni aliamua kumwongelea. "Siku zote ninakusihii uache mchezo mwingi na ujitahidi katika darasa lakini husikii. Basi hiyo ndiyo faida ya mchezo. Huwezi kupita mpaka ujitaabishe kwelikweli. Hakuna kitu kizuri kinachopatikana kwa urahisi. Lazima utoe jasho. Maisha ya siku hizi si rahisi jinsi unavyofikiria. Anza kujikaza kisabuni ili ufaulu. Kwanza msikilize mwalimu wako anaposomesha. Aidha mwulize swali iwapo hujaelewa. Vilevile usifikirie juu ya kitu kingine chochote wakati unapofundisha. Mwisho utakapopewa ziada hakikisha umezifanyia nyumbani zote na usizifanye ovyoovyoo”

Katundu aligundua kuwa maisha yalikuwa yake na hivyo basi akaamua kubadilika na kufaulu shuleni.

Read the passage below carefully and then answer questions 26 to 38.

Recently, a local pastor was moistening his throat after a lengthy battle with the devil from the pulpit. The shouting had made his loud voice hoarse, so he ordered for a concoction to mend his distended vocal cords and balance the PH in his mouth.

I gave him a cup spiked with cinnamon, chamomile and ginger. He knocked back two cups in quick succession and began testing his vocal cord as he nodded his head as if to confirm the effectiveness of the remedy.

However, unknown to him, a self-proclaimed witchdoctor was out searching for him over an outstanding debt his wife owed him. The witchdoctor is only known as Madevu, perhaps because of his long and scraggly beard. A naughty patron with a twisted sense of humour at the café joked that Madevu must have been a relative of the late Johana. Unknown to many, Madevu and the servant of the lord were enemies by default.

Madevu, who had been searching for the pastor all day long, eventually stumbled upon him at Kahawa Tungu where he was relaxing and sipping coffee, after fixing his throat. Interesting, Madevu had tagged along a bunch of hecklers who did not want to miss the action when the fireworks began to fly. They soon filled up the place and orders were streaming in left, right and centre.

Madevu approached the table where the pastor was sitting, and politely requested to see him outside to discuss business. Now, the man had heard of sinners who wanted to repent but never a self-confessed enemy of the lord ordering a servant of the lord around. The pastor responded in away that would embarrass Madevu.

Madevu with bloodshot eyes announced, "The fee, I have come to collect the fee. It must be paid!" "I don't hire your type so how can you collect a fee from me?" the pastor asked derisively. "Maybe you don't, but your wife does. I am the force behind your happy marriage and for that I must get paid my dues. I have been supplying your wife with love potions and consultancy services that hold your marriage together!" That is when the truth dawned on the pastor that his wife had been consulting a witchdoctor to keep their marriage intact. The pastor was shocked. Surprisingly, the pastor declared his wife divorced, yes, right there and then, for associating with the enemy. The pastor unceremoniously left the café with rotten eggs all over his face. The man of God had to pay up to avoid further embarrassment, leaving patrons in stitches.

26. Why did the pastor order for a concoction?
 A. To moisten his throat.

Read the passage below carefully and then answer questions 39 to 50.

When the zonal competitions came I was almost sure I would do well and make it to the next level. My parents too were of the same opinion. "Kogei, we know you'll win as you've always done. We have faith in you," my mother told me.

Finally, the day came. Our zone had seven schools and each had competitors in all the events. Each group was to select the best three competitors who would move on the district championships and represent the zone. I was determined to be one of them. Among these that had come to cheer me were my parents and my brothers and sisters. As the competitions were on our school grounds, most of the spectators were my schoolmates.

The competitors were called, all twenty of us. I was ready and took my position. When the gun went off I was among the first to dash and was in the sack and running as soon as I got into it. The cheering started
