

13.3 ANALYSIS OF QUESTIONS THAT CANDIDATES FOUND DIFFICULT

13.3.1 PAPER 1 (314/1)

Question 7

Name the four Shia collections of Hadith. (4 marks)

The question was on Hadith. The candidates were expected to know the Shia Collections of Hadith.

Weaknesses

Majority of the candidates did not know the Shia collections of hadith. This points to the possibility that this sub-topic was not covered during teaching. Teachers should ensure that all topics of the syllabus are adequately covered.

Expected Responses

Four Shia Collections of Hadith

- i) Al-Kafi
- ii) Man-la-radhurhul Fakih
- iii) Al-Istibar
- iv) Tahdhibu Ahkan

Question 14

State five rights of a Muslim employer. (5 marks)

The question expected the candidates to know the teachings of Islam on the rights of an employer.

Weakness

Quite a good number of candidates wrote on the Islamic teachings on the rights of employees. This is an indication that candidates did not take time to read the question carefully. It is important that teachers should impress upon their students to read questions carefully.

Expected Response

- i) Should be respected by his/her employees.
- ii) Employees should follow his/her directives so long as they are within lawful means.
- iii) Should make profit through lawful means.
